THE SCHMULBACH STABLES And Indoor Training Quarters to be Built at Roney's Point. As soon as more favorable weather is assured work will begin on the erection of the extensive horse stables and barn for Mr. Henry Schmulbach, on his Roney's Point farm, about ten miles east of the city. It will be the largest structure of its kind in the tri-state radius, comprising under one roof a barn, stables and an indoor track, for the breaking in of colts and the exer-claims of the horses in general.

Mr. Schmulbach has about one hundred head of blooded horses, part of which are sheltered at his Island stables and the remainder on his farm at Roney's Point. This farm contains nearly three hundred acres, and is well adapted for a stock farm. The enclosure to be built on it will be four hundred. nearly three hundred acres, and is well adapted for a stock farm. The enclosure to be built on it will be four hundred feet in length and nearly that distance wide. A one-third mile track, similar to his Island track, will be laid out on a choice plece of ground, devoted, of course, to outdoor exercising. The Schmulbach stables contain a fine herd of Shetland ponies, as well as a big string of trotters.

Auber Made Good Showing.

"Buzz" Auber and his manager, Les-lie Pearce, returned from Beaver Falls yesterday, where Harry Johnston got yesterday, where Harry Johnston got the decision in the seventh round over the Wheeling lad. There was no evidence of punishment on "Buzz's" face and he felt very sore over the adverse decision. Pearce said his protege had suffered an injustice from the Beaver Falls police, who caused the bout to be stopped when "Buzz" was knocked down. "Buzz" wasn't out or anywhere near it. He fought a careful defense as instructed, and was letting fense as instructed, and was letting Johnston do all the work for the earlier rounds, hence he took the defeat as it was accounted, very poorly. Another match is talked of between them.

"DEATH IN THE POT."

"Death in the pot." That sentence condenses the story of a tragedy. A little family gathering. A fine dinner cooked in the large copper kettle long disused, and the entire family poisoned by the accumulated verdigris. The story was told by the newspapers from one end of the land to the other. But it was soon forgotten. The moral of it is, that the purest of food, put into a foul vessel, instead of ministering to life may become a minister of death.

If the stomach is diseased it is like the poisonous kettle, which taints everything that goes into it. The symptoms are irregular appetite, undue fullness after eating, distressed feeling in the stomach, of flutering and sinking sensations, palpitation, dizziness, ringing in ears, sour or bitter risings and constipation. Not all these symptoms may be present at the same time, but any of them shows discase in the digestive or alimentary tract. The intimate relation of the stomach to the blood, heart, liver and lungs makes it a medical maxim in exploring the causes of obscure diseases to "start with the stomach." It is upon this principle that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery effects so many and such remarkable cures. It cleanses the stomach and the system is cleansed. It increase the action of the blood making remarkable cures. It cleanses the stomach and the system is cleansed. It increases the action of the blood making glands, and the body is enriched by the purified blood. It strengthens the digestive or mutritive organs and these strengthen the whole body by increasing the quantity and quality of its nourishment. It carries off the poisonous, effect matter. In this way it re-establishes health, banishing the bodily aches, which are but symptoms of the stomach's condition.

Harry Cornish has charge of the water sports, and it was he who this aftermoon gave Donaldson the signal to dive. Three thousand persons were present and saw the famous diver lean from the platform and falling slowly forward, make the plunge. He shot straight downward, but it was plain before he had got half the distance that he had lost control of his body.

solely by its remarkable healing and soothing effects.

And while it thus gives immediate re-lief, at the same time the disease is not merely checked, but a radical cure is rapidly accomplished.

And the point we want to make clear is that all this is done without a particle of pain.

This fact is one great reason for the popularity of the Pyramid Pile Cure and constitutes one very great difference between it and almost any other kind of treatment for piles.

Every kind of surgical operation for piles is excruciatingly painful besides endangering the life of the patient and in most cases is not to be compared with the Pyramid Cure, neither in mak-
